

JOY

I have a hope, unshakable and unwavering like the only flower standing in a field.
I see a land covered with his grace and blessings
like rain drops falling from Heaven.

I didn't even have an ounce of courage,
but He has given me his joy, unceasing, unchangeable.
I want to tell the world about the joy received when I first believed in Him.
Joy, joy, joy. Let the joy abound and captivate.
Let your light shine bright before man and your heart be filled with love, joy and peace.
